Introduction

3001, What you're holding in your hands is the fourth book in series of rare records covers, after "Rare Record Cover Book", "1001 Record Collector Dreams", "2001 Record Collector Dreams" finally here "3001 Record Collector Dreams", again a selection of rare and great sixties and seventies beat, garage, psychedelic, progressive and folk-rock records from all over the world.

As supplement to my first book I've added 115 pictures of popular UK beat groups which had special (unique) covers on the Continent and Overseas, this part of the book is a bonus and is to be considered as an appendix to my first book "Rare Record Cover Book".

Since collectors, in the last few years, have shown growing interest in the folk-rock scene, I've decided to include in this book some folk-rock records which appear to me delightful both in musical sense and cover art. I would like to remark that in addition to England, Scotland, Ireland and Wales, traditionally known for their strong folk roots, there is an incredible reach folk scene to be discovered in countries such different as Norway, Chile, France, Spain or even the U.S.A. (all covered in this book).

A couple of records from the eighties have been included although the main selection is focused on the sixties and seventies.

A big thanks goes to pioneer collector and dealer Walter Geertszen who is still able to discover rare and brilliant records still unknown to collectors and offer them for sale in his lists. And although it's becoming almost impossible to discover new groups from the sixties and seventies. Walter still succeeds and surprises collectors with new records from the most remote corners of the world, and this is exactly what collectors like me are looking for, there is nothing more exciting than get new records, still unknown in the collector scene, which are musically interesting and have a good cover art. Let me also mention mr. Hiroshi Takizawa (GSM Records) from Japan, whom my respect goes, a pioneer in the field of international music, he started long ago exploring the record market in search of hidden jewels, he is still searching and helping collectors with xerox copies of discographies and record covers which he passes over at self cost price. I would like to thank some friends who helped me with material and information from their private collections, in my consideration they are to be rated as "Top Collectors".

Raymond Dumont, Alessandro Cerrai, Caveman Jacopo, Go Hirano & Ikuko, Haaken Eric Mathiesen, Sergio Torres Esquer, Ivan Bompani, Harald Korbar-Wegner, Feddo Renier, Stephan Collorado, Luiz Antonio Torge, Mario "Magic" Wunderlich, Daniel Iankoff, Dario Maffioli, Terje Aasdalen, Luc Wouters, George Raikos, Josef Schramm, Laszlo Varga, Reinhardt Bugl, Marcelo & Maria, Enrique Soriano Vilar, Ladislaus Deli, Peter, Franz, and other friends that i have forgotten to mention.

Introduction

30291 What you're holding in your hands is the fourth book in series of rare records covers after "Rare Record Cover Book '1001 Record Collector Dreams'" "1001 Record Collector Dreams" finally here rare and great sixties and seventies beat garage, psychedelic progressive and folk-rock records from all over the world.

As supplement to my first book I've added its pictures of popular UK beat groups which had special unique covers on the Continent and Overseas. This part of the book is a bonus and is to be considered as an appendix to my first book "Rare Record Cover Book".

Since collectors in the last few years have shown growing interest in the folk-rock scene, I've decided to include in this book some folk-rock records which appear to me delightful both in musical sense and cover art. I would like to remark that in addition to England, Scotland, Ireland and Wales, traditionally known for their strong folk roots, there is an incredible reach folk scene to be discovered in countries such different as Norway, Chile, France, Spain or even the U.S.A. All covered in this book.

A couple of records from the eighties have been included although the main selection is focused on the sixties and seventies.

A big thanks goes to pioneer collector and dealer Walter Geertsen who is still able to discover rare and brilliant records still unknown to collectors and offer them for sale in his lists. And although it's becoming almost impossible to discover new groups from the sixties and seventies. Walter still succeeds and surprises collectors with new records from the most remote corners of the world, and this is exactly what collectors like me are looking for, there is nothing more exciting than get new records, still unknown in the collector scene, which are musically interesting and have a good cover art. Let me also mention Mr. Hiroshi Takizawa GSM Records from Japan, whom my respect goes, a pioneer in the field of international music, he started long ago exploring the record market in search of hidden jewels. He is still searching and helping collectors with xerox copies of discographies and record covers which he passes over at self cost price. I would like to thank some friends who helped me with material and information from their private collections in my consideration they are to be rated as 'Top Collectors'.

Raymond Dumont, Alessandro Cerrai, Caveman Jacopo, Go Hirano & Ikuko, Haaken Eric Mathiesen, Sergio Torres Esquer, Ivan Bompani, Harald Korbar-Wegner, Feddo Renier, Stephan Collorado, Luiz Antonio Torge, Mario 'Magic' Wunderlich, Daniel Iankoff, Dario Maffioli, Terje Aasdaalen, Luc Wouters, George Raikos, Josef Schramm, Laszlo Varga, Reinhardt Bugl, Marcelo & Maria Enrique Soriano Vilar, Ladislav Del Peter, Franz and other friends that I have forgotten to mention.

The German Beatbands

A cover discography with approximately 2000 colour illustrations of the singles, EPs and LPs originating from the beat bands in Germany, Switzerland, Austria and other German-speaking nations between the years 1961 to 1972. The volume includes a section depicting the international groups and interpreters of the time living and performing predominantly in Germany such as Ian & the Zodiacs, The Liverbirds, Casey Jones and the section "Sung in German", featuring the international beat bands, - The Beach Boys, The Beatles, The Searchers, etc. - and their hits sung in German.
